

10.Arizona 2006

Eric and I played in the Sedona Sectional in early February before taking a trip to the Grand Canyon with his then girlfriend and my son Paul.

11. Texas 2006

I first played bridge here at the spring 2006 NABC in Dallas, of course since then there have been many other visits, playing in the Austin Regional, Houston Regional, San Antonio and Austin sectionals, and playing in the Austin club. I've had family in Austin for some time but now I have several very good friends in Texas, all found through this great game! While there in 2008 for the summer Regional, we watched the bats head out from the Congress Avenue Bridge in Austin for their nightly feeding trip to Mexico and back.

12. Illinois 2006

I played in the summer NABC in Chicago with Eric and various other partners. Paul caddied for a few days before leaving for a volleyball camp at Loyola.

13. Pennsylvania 2006

I played duplicate for a few days at the local duplicate club in State College, PA while Paul attended a volleyball camp at Penn State.

14. Hawaii 2006

I played in the Fall NABC and Paul worked as a caddy. We also enjoyed Hawaii.

Tournament Director Jackie Matthews, center, poses with a group of caddies, all sporting tee shirts advertising "Jackie Forever 2 - Hawaiian Boogaloo." Some of the caddies, according to Matthews, are retiring after the Fall NABC, and the tee shirts are to be a remembrance of their time in Honolulu. Matthews said many bridge players chipped in with cash and air miles so that the caddies could make it to Hawaii (they are used to driving to tournaments), and District 9 had a tip jar at all tournaments to take donations for the caddies' trips to the Fall NABC.

15. Tennessee 2007

Here I played in the GNT Flight C, we did okay, 9 MP. Picked up my first platinum points playing in the Women's Pairs in 2012 in Memphis. I also won the ABTA (American Bridge Teachers' Association) Apple Basket Award, award for the best teacher tip, in Memphis in 2012.

16. Minnesota 2007

I played at a sectional duplicate tournament in St. Paul while there for Paul's volleyball tournament.
